

INTERNATIONAL GUITAR FESTIVAL – 11th edition 18-21 April 2024 – Trieste (Italy)

The Civica Orchestra di fiati "G. Verdi" – Città di Trieste together with Scuola di musica 55 di Trieste and Associazione Musicale Culturale "Città Di Codroipo" presents the International Guitar Festival that will be held from 18 to 21 April 2024 in Trieste (Italy).

The festival, now in its 11th edition, will feature the guitar in all its aspects and will offer a wide range of activities, namely:

- Classical guitar masterclass (M^o Pier Luigi Corona, M^o Marko Feri and other teachers) and guitar orchestra: it will be held from 19 to 21 April and provides for each participant two individual lessons and group lessons for the guitar orchestra. At the time of registration, participants can indicate preferences regarding the choice of the teacher for individual lessons.
- Second edition of the "Julian Bream" competition: divided into 4 categories and aimed at guitarists aged 8 to 25. The first three categories are divided according to age, while the fourth, called "Young concert players", is aimed at young concert guitarists. Young concert players will have to present a freely chosen music program and a compulsory piece from the guitar repertoire. To the winner of the D category, in addition to the prize and the performance in the final concert, will be given the opportunity to perform in a musical event organised by the Civica Orchestra di fiati "G. Verdi". The jury of the competition will be composed of 5 jurors: Matteo Firmi, Pier Luigi Corona, Raffaele Pisano, Laurentiu Stoica, Ivan Semenzato. Then depending on the organisation of the concomitant activities, the jurors will rotate.
- 2 concerts: the opening concert (on Thursday 18 April 2024) and the closing concert (on Sunday 21 April 2024)

The guitarists involved, both as jury in the competition and in the masterclass, and as speakers for workshops will be:

- Pier Luigi Corona (ITA)
- Marko Feri (SLO)
- Kimmo Vuolteenaho (FI)
- Ivan Semenzato (MX/ITA)
